"The first step in the procurement of military manpower is registration..."
General Lewis B. Hershey

c.j. hinke

will not register for the draft--

i sing of Olaf glad and big
whose warmest heart recoiled at war:
a conscientious object-or

his wellbeloved colonel(trig westpointer most succinctly bred)
took erring Olaf soon in hand;
but--though an host of overjoyed
noncoms(first knocking on the head
him)do through icy waters roll
that helplessness which others stroke
with brushes recently employed
anent this muddy toiletbowl,
while kindred intellects evoke allegiance per blunt instruments-- Olaf(being to all intents
a corpse and wanting any rag upon what God unto him gave)
responds,without getting annoyed
"I will not kiss your fucking flag"

straightway the silver bird looked grave (departing hurriedly to shave)

but--though all kinds of officers
(a yearning nation's blueeyed pride)
their passive prey did kick and curse
until for wear their clarion
voices and boots were much the worse,
and egged the firstclassprivates on
his rectum wickedly to tease
by means of skilfully applied
bayonets roasted hot with heat-- Olaf(upon what were once knees)
does almost ceaselessly repeat
"there is some shit I will not eat"

our president, being of which assertions duly notified
threw the yellowsonofabitch
into a dungeon,where he died

Christ(of His mercy infinite)
i pray to see;and Olaf,too

preponderatingly because unless statistics lie he was more brave than me: more blond than you.

United States Code Annotated, Title 50, War and National Defense Appendix, § 462. Offenses and penalties Military Selective Service Act of 1967

(a)...any...person charged as herein provided with the duty of carrying out any of the provisions of this title ...or the rules or regulations made or directions given thereunder...who...refuses registration or service in the armed forces,...shall, upon conviction in any district court of the United States of competent jurisdiction, be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of not more than $10,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment...

[illegible] J. Hinke will not register for the draft

A PLEA TO AMERICA AND AMERICANS

There comes a time in history when it is the duty of every responsible citizen to break the law. The Nuremberg Tribunal adjudged that it was necessary for each man to follow the dictates of his own conscience in refusing to comply with the orders of an unjust power. I am ashamed to be an American, having never asked for any of its rights or privileges, because of the irresponsible manner in which my country behaves in foreign and domestic policy. There is no time now for doubt, no room for fear. In conscience, I announce my refusal to register with the draft in direct violation of the Military Selective Service Act of 1967.

I have reached this decision through several years of work with the pacifist movement in this country. I must devote my life to better the values of mankind and to build a better world and a nonviolent society where all men can live together in a community of sharing. Each man must be willing to accept the consequences of his actions. Nonviolent direct action provides the conflict which can bring about meaningful social change through its resolution. The pacifist must be prepared to accept the burden of self-suffering in this confrontation. For Christ, the consequence was death for believing in mankind; for myself, the consequence may well be five years in a federal prison. Five years is not too much to give for change.

My direction and purpose calls for a reverence for life. Each human life is sacred and it is immoral for me to take a man's life no matter what the provocation. "not people die but worlds die in them..." (Yevgeny Yevtushenko) When a man strikes out at me, with his fists, or with his words, or with his laws, I cannot respond with hostility, I must respond with love. If he imprisons me, he takes responsibility for my body, but he can never imprison my mind. There is no higher law than that of conscience, and if one is not to collaborate with injustice, then one must not cooperate with arrests or courts or prisons, as they are instruments of this indignity to life and are established so as to humiliate the individual and in which one is not permitted to conduct human relationships and retain human values. The civilization which we have built and the society to which we are heirs has given Americans an indifference to killing. "Let us see then what love can do..."

I call upon you to give love. The military system breeds dehumanization and the destruction of the individual. We are taught in our schools and in the press and mass media to hate those men of other nations merely because their viewpoints on the world are different than our own. I hate no man for his mind. I do not love this country because it is engaged in murder, but this in no way prevents me from loving each individual within the government as a human being. If you cannot love even such a man as Hitler, then you cannot love at all. It is our duty to resist the power of injustice so that all men may live in peace and freedom.

A. J. Muste said, "There is no way to peace--peace is the way..." Our violence surely cannot force our respect upon other countries. It is our responsibility to offer them a better alternative. To achieve peace as a just end, we must utilize the peaceful alternative as a just means. Three-quarters of every tax dollar paid to the government is used to support the military system. For the past three years, I have refused to pay taxes to a government that spends six million dollars every hour on armaments, eighty million dollars every day on the war in Vietnam alone, and holds the destructive capacity of many tons of T.N.T. for every man, woman, and child on the earth. We must not support the preparation or implementation of this wanton destruction with our lives or with our dollars. I urge you to refuse.

It is not enough to condemn all wars; we must utilize all our power to stop them. I believe in this nation as it was conceived, as it was embodied in the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights. Today's society has become far too complex for us to operate on the theory of any ultimate nation-state. We must join our hands with all men around the world for all men are our brothers. We must now declare our independence and our right to be free from war and conscription. Many thousands of us will be taken to prison because of our beliefs. "Rivers of blood may have to flow before we gain our freedom, but it must be our blood..." (Mohandas Gandhi) We refuse to collaborate with the Selective Service System. It is not enough to dissent; we must resist. The time is now to put an end to war and for all honest men to become revolutionaries. We must make individual values into social values. We cannot stop this government with our words or with our petitions or with our votes. We will stop it by the power of our actions. Join the American Revolution. We say "NO!"

No matter how far we remove ourselves from the bloodshed, our hands are covered with the blood of millions of human beings; they died at Hiroshima, they died in Dresden, and they are dying in Vietnam as you read this plea, and it is our fault. The blood is Japanese, the blood is German, the blood is Vietnamese, and the blood is American. I cannot stand idly by and see the spectacle of my country engaged in destruction. I place my body before the machinery of war and plead: "In the name of God, STOP IT!" Stop the slaughter; wake up, America! It is your sons who are dying, and the sons of Vietnam, and it is only you who can stop it.

In the past few weeks, we have mourned the death of a nonviolent leader, the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Perhaps his death was a part of the penance that we must pay for the guilt in which we all share for dealing in oppression. Now that we have killed America, the penance will be much greater. His murder was the natural consequence of a nonviolent life, and he was able to suffer for living a life of dignity. "To cry out the truth in the streets of our time is a vocation to truth, to poverty and to prison..." (Karl Meyer) There are few of us who believe in what Gandhiji called "ahimsa" or "satyagraha" or what the Greeks called "agape." We must join one another in trust if we are truly going to build one world. Let us not place our hope in leaders; let us place our hope in nonviolence.

hese are revolutionary times," said Dr. King "All over the globe men are revolting against old systems of exploitation and oppression and out of the wombs of a frail world new systems of justice and equality are being born. The shirtless and barefoot people of the land are rising up as never before. "The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light." We ...must support these revolutions."

advise, abet, and council each young man to refuse to serve in the armed forces.

oday occurs five days after my eighteenth birthday and I am not able to, in conscience, register with the draft. Today, I am a free man, able to love beyond law, to scorn martyrs, and to mock heroes. Today I live a revolution.

ars will cease when men refuse to fight..."

United States Code Annotated, Title 50
War and National Defense Appendix, § 462. Offenses and penalties Military Selective Service Act of 1967

(a)...any...person charged as herein provided with the duty of carrying out any of the provisions of this title ...or the rules or regulations made or directions given thereunder...who knowingly counsels, aids, or abets another to refuse...registration,...or any person or persons who shall knowingly hinder or interfere, or attempt to do so in any way, by force or violence or otherwise, with the administration of this,...or who conspires to commit any one or more of such offenses, shall, upon conviction in any district court of the United States of competent jurisdiction, be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of not more than $10,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment...

"...[redacted]e believe...that every free man has a legal right and a moral duty to exert every effort to end this war, to afoid collusion with it, and to encourage others to do the same. Young men in the armed forces or threatened with the draft face the most excruciating choices. For them various forms of resistance risk separation from their families and their country, destruction of their careers, loss of their freedom and loss of their lives. Each must choose the course of resistance dictated by his conscience... Among those already in the armed forces some are refusing to obey specific illegal and immoral orders, some are attempting to educate their fellow servicemen on the murderous and barbarous nature of the war, some are absenting themselves without official leave. Among those not in the armed forces some are applying for status as conscientious abjectors to American aggression in Vietnam, some are refusing to be inducted. Among both groups some are resisting openly and paying a heavy penalty, some are organizing more resistance within the United States and some have sought sanctuary in other countries."

[redacted]e believe that each of these forms of resistance against illegitimate authority is courageous and justified. Many of us believe that open resistance to the war and the draft is the course of action most likely to strengthen the moral resolve with which all of us can oppose the war and most likely bring an end to the war."

Best Copy Possible

e will continue to lend our support to those who undertake resistance to this war. We will raise funds to organize draft resistance unions, to supply legal defense and bail, to support families and otherwise aid resistance to the war in whatever ways seem appropriate!"

e firmly believe that our statement is the sort of speech that under the First Amendment must be free, and that the actions we will undertake are as legal as is the war resistance of the young men themselves. In any case, we feel that we cannot shrink from fulfilling our responsililities to the youth whom many of us teach, to the country whose freedom we cherich, and to the ancient traditions of religion and philosophy which we strive to preserve in this generation."

e call upon all men of good will to join us in this confrontation with immoral authority. Especially we call upon the universities to fulfill their mission of enlightenment and religious organizations to honor their heritage of brotherhood. Now is the time to resist."

WE HAVE CONSPIRED

J. Hinke will refuse to register with the Selective Service System today, 6 May 1968. He knows that a prison sentence will follow. We honor and support him for his decision not to become a killer and not to cooperate with a system that makes war easy.

any of us are parents and teachers. We do not think our responsibilities for this young man end as soon as he is big enough and strong enough to enter the army. Therefore, we must use a legal language that will make clear to the government that we will not let him stand alone, that it will help for us to share his risk.

o a youhg man such a C.J. Hinke, we counsel draft refusal in direct violation of § 453 of this Appendix, We are determined to aid and abet him in every way until war ends. In doing this, we hope to hinder and interfere with the violent concerns of the Selective Service System by providing you with one less body to become a part of the war machine. We are all conspirators in life and in holy disobedience. Join us.

WHAT GRADUATION MEANS

There are approximately 2,000 male seniors graduating today. Virtually all of us will be drafted. Of this, the UCLA class of '68:

- 1600 of us will go to Vietnam;
- 78 of us will die there;
- 464 of us will be wounded;
- 201 of us will suffer a permanent disability;
- 33 of us will lose an arm or leg;
- almost all of us will kill at least 1 Vietnamese, and wound 6.*

*(figures projected from Defense Dept. statistics, as reported in N.Y. Times, Feb. thru April, 1968)

We feel that we must speak out against the bloody fate that awaits us. Therefore, at Commencement, we are asking everyone to:

1. remain seated during the National Anthem as a protest against the war in Vietnam;
2. remain seated during the Alma Mater and the benediction as a protest against University complicity in the war and the draft;
3. wear the peace armbands that are now being distributed;
4. join our program after Commencement at the foot of Janss steps.
